

Jay Utterback

Jay Utterback is a partner with Watermark CPA Group, an Indianapolis based firm focused on closely held business entities and their owner operators.

Mr. Utterback has spent the last twenty plus years advising clients on a wide range of income tax matters in corporate, partnership, and limited liability environments as well as the interrelationship with individual taxation.

His practice is comprised primarily of companies in the manufacturing, distribution, and construction sectors ranging from start up entities to those with revenues in excess of $350,000,000.