

Kathleen M. Guider
Special Agent
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Ms. Guider is a 1986 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky, where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Police Administration. In 1991, she received a Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Eastern Kentucky University.

Ms. Guider spent nine years with the Lexington Kentucky Police Department. She was assigned to Patrol Division, Detective Bureau - operating the Crime Stoppers Program, Community Services - teaching the DARE program for 2.5 years, and Special Services as a Sergeant.

In 1995, Ms. Guider was appointed as a Special Agent in the FBI. For 21 years she has served in the Indianapolis Division where she has conducted drug, terrorism and white collar crime investigations. Ms. Guider's duties also included being appointed the Applicant Coordinator and Recruiter for the Indianapolis Division, the Training Coordinator and Media Coordinator. She is currently is assigned as the Strategic Partnership Coordinator on the Counterintelligence Squad.

Ms. Guider is a Certified Police Instructor, teaching courses in Interview and Interrogation, Instructor Development Course, Hate Crimes, and Statement Analysis. She has been a member of the Evidence Response Team for the past twenty years.